BRANDS LEAGUE DANGER TO WORLD

Noted Republican Says Voters Must Decide The Greatest Question in History Of The Country.

Must Choose "Between American Nationalism and Political Internationalism" He Asserts.

(By Associated Press)

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 27. — Accepting the league of nations as the dominant issue in the coming political campaign, David Jayne Hill, temporary chairman of the unofficial republican state convention today called upon voters to decide between "American nationalism and the political internationalism of Wilson."

He characterized this as the "most far-reaching decision since the formation of our government."

In his address, devoted largely to the treaty of Versailles, Mr. Hill declared "the real control of Europe is vested not in the league but in the supreme council of the allied powers, a separate organ of action. It alone has armies at its command. Its voice alone is heard in Europe.

"The only hope of the league utility for peace," he declared, "is in a change of its center of gravity from a military to a judiciary orgnaization."

"To imagine," he continued, "as Mr. Wilson does, or did before he discovered Europe, that the war has produced a fine sense of unity or mutual sympathy between the powers is an error that would wreck any business enterprise based upon that supposition.

"The large question is shall we subordinate the constitution to the covenant or shall we state frankly to the world that we will never in the least degree compromise the constitution of the United States."

NEIGHBOR WILL GO TO NEW YORK TO VIEW BODY

New Developments in Trunk Murder Case Come to Light.

(By Associated Press)

Detroit, Mich., July 27.—A statement to the police by Mrs. Leo Trumbull ,wife of a patrolman, that Mrs. Eugene LeRoy victim of Detroit's trunk murder mystery, had confided she was about to become a mother injected a theory into the case today.

Police today divided their attention between a hunt for LeRoy, husband of the slain woman, and a second trunk, believed to contain the vital organs of the body and which is known to have been sent from the Harper Avenue apartment house where the LeRoys lived.

Police believe that examination of the organs might reveal whether death was due to a criminal operation, as has been hinted since Mrs. Trumbull made her statement. Mrs. Trumbull was to go to New York today to view the body.

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, July 27.—Sensational breaks in prices took place in the wheat market today and the finish of trading showed losses of 7¾ to 14 cents per bushel in addition to an extreme drop yesterday of 8 cents.

RESCUE FROM THE REACTION OF WAR

G. O. P. Vive-Presidential Nominee Formally Notified Of Selection At National Convention.

Deplores Tendency to Substitute "Private Will For Public Will."

Change of Attitude Toward Labor and Cut in Taxes Are Urged

Would "Repossess People Of Their Property."

(By Associated Press.)

Northampton, Mass., July 27.—Rescue from the reaction of war was described as the transcendant need of the nation in the address which Governor Coolidge delivered here today in accepting formally the republican nomination for vice-president.

"The chief task that lies before us," he said, "is to repossess the people of their government and their property."

Governor Coolidge found another source of gravest public concern to be "the reactionary tendency to substitute private will for the public will."

He said there had been a disposition on the part of some individuals and of groups to inquire whether they liked the law, and, if not, to disregard it and prevent its execution by the method of direct action.

The scene of the notification was Allen Field, the recreation ground of Smith College, a natural ampitheater.

Discussing economic relations, Governor Collidge declared the extravagant standard of government expenditure, bred of recent years, must be eliminated and a revision of taxation be accompanied by a reduction of private extravagance.

He urged a different public attitude toward industry, a larger comprehension of the inter-dependence of capital and labor, and better facilities for the prompt and reasonable adjustment of industrial disputes.

The need of the farmers, he said, is an enlarged power of organization whereby the original producer may profit to a large degree by the high prices paid for his produce by the consumer and at the same time decrease the cost of food.

DEFENDS SENATE

"The proposed League of Nations without reservations as submitted by the President to the Senate met with deserved opposition from republican senators," said Governor Coolidge.

"Our party by the declaration of its platform approves the principle of agreement among nations to preserve peace and pledges itself to such an agreement reserving American independence and rights as will meet every duty America owes to humanity. This language is purposely broad, not exclusive but inclusive. The republican party is not narrow enough to limit itself to one idea, but wise and broad enough to provide for the adoption of the best plan that can be devised at the time of action."

DAUGHERTY ARRIVES

Among the early arrivals at the notification ceremonies was Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio, Senator Harding's pre-convention manager, and his personal representative at the exercises.

BIG GAME PRESERVE SOUGHT BY BAXTER

Chares B. Griffith, in "Field and Stream," Columbus Dispatch, tells of a plan for a huge game preserve in central Ohio that will be a distinct innovation in hunting circles. He says.

"There is a big time coming for the sportsmen of Ohio through the effort of A. C. Baxter, chief of the state fish and game bureau, and even the out-of-doors Buckeye with a $10 shotgun and a patch on his trousers will have a chance in the years to come to go after the rabbit or try to land a bass with his cane pole without fear of trespassing.

"Mr. Baxter is now arranging to secure the option on from 12,000 to 20,000 acres of land in Central Ohio which he desires to dedicate forever to the propogation of game and fish and have it thrown open for a certain period to any worthy citizen of Ohio who wishes to hunt or fish.

"His scheme, however is far more comprehensive than the setting aside of a huge sanctuary in central Ohio for he has already secured an option on 2000 acres of swamp land along Lake Erie, which he proposes to set aside as a sanctuary for wild fowl, where they may be shot under certain conditions, during the open season. This land is approximately near Sandusky and is known as the "Huron Flats," where for centuries, wild fowl in their annual flight have stopped. The spot is declared to be among the best in the country for ducks and geese and other wild fowl. Mr. Baxter says this is only the beginning of a plan to secure thousands of acres along the lake shore for a sanctuary."

If your Grocer should go on a Permanent Strike

MAYBE YOU could get a part of your table supplies from downtown merchants.

Maybe you'd have to go to Chicago or some other big trade center for your staples.

It is quite possible that in time you could arrange for your coffees and spices to be delivered direct from the planters.

What a scramble there would be for the necessities of life—for existence.

Your neighborhood grocer brings your table necessities, and the little luxuries that make living worth while, within your easy reach.

The convenience of his service is always yours—you can depend on it. Yet, his profit is smaller than that of any other merchant on earth.

SPECIAL

The lover of really good coffee finds perfect satisfaction in the Gates A-1 Blend. The surprising feature is the low cost to you. Through the co-operation of your neighborhood grocery store, a large quantity of this coffee has been bought and paid for at the low point of the market and is now being offered to you at an attractive money-saving price.

TOLD THE TRUTH

A Sabina citizen, writing to the News-Journal, tells a story of some very definite instructions given by a man of the village, whom a stranger asked the way to Wilmington.

"Can you tell me the way to Wilmington?" asked the passer-through.

"Deed I kin," came the obliging reply; "you jist keep yer wheels turning on this yere fine pike until you strike the roughest piece of pike in the world—and yer right in Wilmington!"

Such reference to the coupling strip of pike between Wilmington's streets and the end of the super-excellent State highway, while cutting to the extreme, is quite emphatic.—Wilmington News.

THREE ELEVATORS CEASE BUSINESS

Reports from several nearby small towns on the main line of the B. & O. indicate that the grain elevators, some four in number, Monday ceased to take in grain for shipment, and announced that because of market conditions that they would allow farmers to store their wheat in the elevators instead.

It is under stood that a number of other elevators are considering much the same action, and some of the smaller ones may not open for the present season.

Grain dealers declare that the market is a very hard one to buy on with assurance that they will even break even.

PREDICTS AN END TO INTERVENTION TO HELP MEXICO

Mexico City, (By Mail—Senator Guillermo Laveaga declares in a statement he has just published that he believes the idea of American intervention in Mexico "very soon will be discredited and that this sole factor in creating hate and distrust between the two peoples will disappear forever."

Senator Laveaga endeavors to interpret to Mexicans the ideals of Americans, as one who formerly lived in the United States. In part he says:

"I do not admit that American interventionists represent the national conscience of the American people. They represent only one class, the usurious capitalists. The honest and conscientious men who form the government never admit them to their deliberations.

"Neither do I admit that the American interventiontionists can deceive with their calumnies and false theories the laborious citizens of that republic. The American people is very credulous, but it has been deceived so often, it has suffered so much from the magnates of the dollar that it knows their methods, distrusts them and fears and repudiates them. I have absolute faith in the moral personalty of the American people.

What is It That Recommends a Tire to You?

When you buy a tire, what is the first thing you ask? Is it the price; the mileage adjustment; who makes it; or do you combine all these and then figure what it will cost per mile of service rendered? If you take the latter course you are wise.

To follow this rule, though, you can't depend on promises alone. You must know what the tire will give; you must find out who are using them and how they "pan out" in actual road service. And after determining these things you have the recommendation that will lead you directly to our store, because——

Road Service Tells More of the Secrets of Tires Than Anything Else

That's why we picked and stay by the tires we have in our line. Every one of them is a tire of demonstrated dependable and definite road service—miles delivered, not promised.

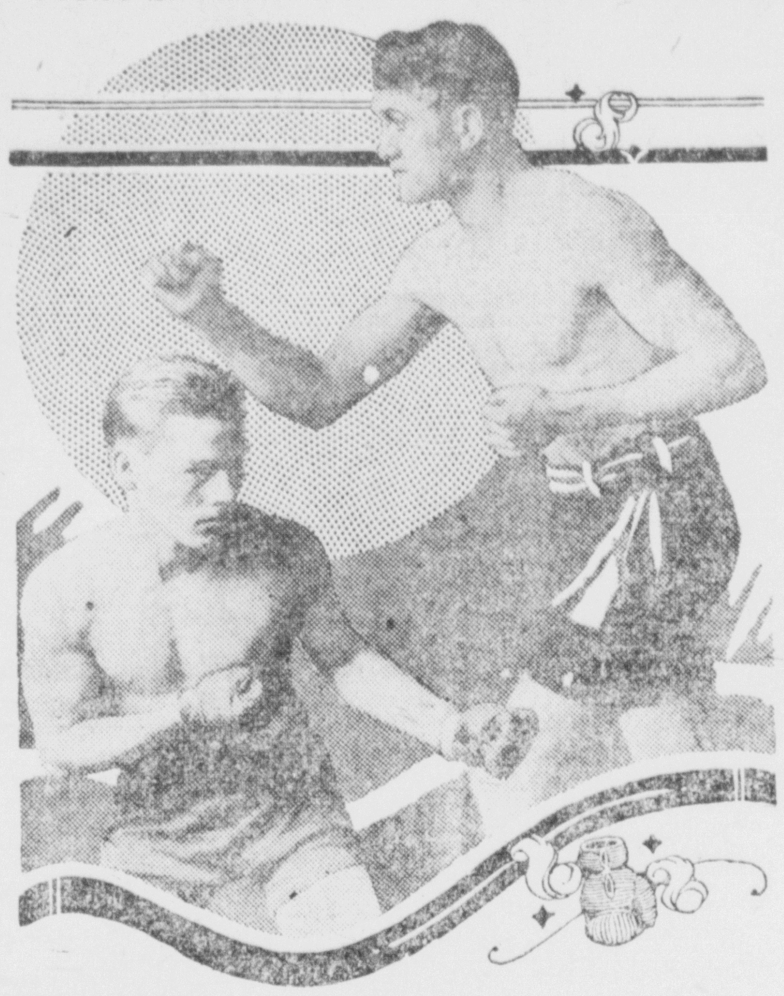
KILBANE SIGNS FOR HIS ODDEST BATTLE; MUST SLAUGHTER BOY FROM OWN TOWN



Johnny Kilbane (above) and Artie Root.

Johnny Kilbane, wearer of the featherweight crown for over eight years, goes into one of the oddest battles of his career July 28, at Cleveland. His opponent will be Artie Root, another native of Cleveland, and almost a neighbor of Johnny's.

Friends of Root urged the match on the ground that Kilbane had never met Root, and that Root's work against the other featherweights had earned him a chance at Kilbane. Kilbane cannot be content with a point victory over his fellow townsman, as a close battle will only draw more boasts and cutting remarks from Root's friends. So the only thing for Kilbane to do is to tear loose and, if he can, annihilate Artie. Kilbane ducked a match with Matt Brock, another Clevelander, for several seasons on the ground that it would be a poor battle, because he had no desire to hurt Brock. When finally forced into the match, Kilbane wiped all the rosin off the canvas with Mr. Brock.

MRS. H. L. HADLEY RESPONDS TO THE ETERNAL SUMMONS

Following eleven weeks of illness the gentle spirit of Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Hadley, wife of Hon. Horace L. Hadley answered the eternal summons a little before four o'clock Monday afternoon, at the home on South Fayette street, and while the passing of the death angel left the home bereft of a devoted and much loved wife and mother, it meant for her release from pain and weariness, which every effort of medical skill and expert nursing could not prevent.

Ever since a fall four years ago Mrs. Hadley's health has been frail and for some weeks her family and friends have realized her serious condition.

Less than two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Hadley celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and the occasion will remain a bright memory to the family and the many friends who enjoyed with them this anniversary and the always cordial hospitality of the home.

Born in Danvers, Mass., seventy-five years ago in January, Mrs. Hadely came to this city soon after her marriage and became a part of its life actively associated with its various circles, religious patriotic and social, her interest in the community and in her friends being deep and sincere. She was connected with the various branches of the work of her church, the First Presbyterian, a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and her activity in temperance work dated back to those early days when she was numbered among the Crusaders.

But, with all that Mrs. Hadley's life was so interwoven with local interests both she and Mr. Hadley retained a great affection for their early New England home and until Mr. Hadley's accident five years ago, went back every year to visit among their numerous relatives.

The kindest of friends and neighbors, Mrs. Hadley's life centered most deeply in her home and the suffering of the last years was mitigated by the reciprocal affection of the husband, one daughter, Mrs. Will Sprenger, one son, Rev. Harry Hadley, rector of St. James Episcopal Church of Zanesville, and the four grand daughters, who survive.

Mrs. Sprenger and family in the home with the father have given to Mrs. Hadley during her long invalidism the most attentive care and Rev. Hadley has been here as much of the time as possible, especially during the last months.

Brief services will be held Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the home, Rev. Gage officiating and at their conclusion all that is mortal will be placed in the Hadley crypt in the mausoleum of the Washington cemetery.

Friends are requested to kindly omit flowers.

These medals are now bing distributed to former service men and the American Legion all over the country is assisting in the work.

FIND CORNCOBS ARE VALUABLE

Columbus, July 27.—If the plans of the department of agriculture materialize, the lowly corncob is about to come into its own. They have heretofore been almost a total wate but now will yield several valuable byproducts in an enormous plant which the department plans to establish at the most advantageous point in Ohio.

Furfural, recently discovered as a by-product and which has a variety of uses in the manufacture of paints and dyes will be the most valuable product. The yield of furfural is only 1.5 per cent by weight but when the value of of the product is estimated it can be easily seen that this alone would make the project profitable. Furfural now sell for $17 a pound. It will be derived at a cost of 20 cents per pound.

Several other valuable by-products are also yielded. Among these are: Two grades of adhesive, one to be used as a substitute for salicitate of soda, and the second for foundry cores and the briquetting of peat and coal dust, and Acentic acid recovered as acetate of lime and cellulose.

Plants similar to the one to be established in Ohio are under consideration by the department in other corn growing centers of the nation.

ROME GOES WILD OVER THE MOVIES

Rome, (By Mail)—Rome's enthusiasm for moving pictures is enormous. Milan which is a much more densely populated city patronizes the "movies" much less than Rome. The great increase in Rome dates from the second half of 1919 when the "sharks" as they call the war profiteers here, first came to the front. A newspaper writer lately accused them of going to the picture theaters with their wives and families in order to learn how the people in what they imagine to be smart society dress and move and act.

How Much Power at the Wheels?

MOTOR power is not car power. Much motor power is lost in its delivery to the rear wheels.

But this loss can be reduced to a minimum by correct lubrication of the "power line"—the transmission gears, universal joints, differential and rear axle bearings.

And correct lubrication of these parts means the use of a lubricant which will prevent wear without offering resistance to power.

Polarine Transmission Lubricants are supplied in three grades, one of which will correctly lubricate the transmission units in your car.

Polarine Transmission Lubricant "A"

A heavy fluid oil—the correct lubricant for transmission and differential gears and bearings, where case construction is tight.

Polarine Transmission Lubricant "B"

A semi-fluid grease for transmission and differential lubrication where construction is such that leakage would occur with a fluid oil.

We Make Headway

Secretary Houston's statement, issued Monday, is a bright ray of promise penetrating the dark ways of finance through which we have been plunging during the last three years in an orgie of expense unequaled in the history of this or any other nation.

During war time no one thought, or cared much, about expenditures. The cost, in dollars and cents, was of secondary importance. The big purpose was to win the war, win it quickly and with as little loss of life as possible.

Since the war has been won people have become, and rightfully so, more concerned about the cost, wondering how the gigantic bills of war time were to be paid and insisting that as rapidly as possible the elaborate war time machine, kept running at such enormous expense, be dismantled and that economy succeed extravagance in governmental management.

People have grown captious and complaining, under the burdens of taxation, now that peace has come, they have grown fretful under the annoyances of governmental interferences with private affairs and the petty proddings of the tax gatherers.

People have not known whether we were headed for the financial reefs or were making our way toward the clear seas.

Secretary Houston's statement is the first definite leaf from the log of our grand old ship of state.

We have met, out of the tremendous revenue receipts, during the last year, all our running expenses, exceeding the outgo on that account and have reduced our gross indebtedness more than a billion dollars.

That's encouraging. It is some compensation for the annoyances we are suffering and the tremendous sums we are paying into the treasury to know that we are making progress; that the way out is ahead and that we are on our course, financially, to the open sea and smoother sailing.

Another Ohio Nominee

Last week the prohibitionists named an Ohio citizen, Aaron S. Watkins, of Germantown, as their standard bearer.

Of course this last nominee, for president, hasn't any very brilliant prospect of being elected in November. He is probably running for principle and honor with no hopes of anything else. If so, he seems destined to be satisfied and runs not much risk of getting more than he expects.

Any way the political parties, great and small, pretentious and unpretentious, practical and visionary, come to Ohio for their candidates.

This is Ohio's year. Many of fortune's smiles seem to have been reserved for the Buckeyes this year. In politics and sport we are right out in front.

This old state is the class in all company and the nation is this year acknowledging it.

Simplifying The Issue

Senator Harding's speech accepting the republican nomination for president, regarding the league of nations and the treaty of Versailles, seems to admit of but one construction.

He seems definitely opposed to the ratification of the treaty, with or without reservations, and to declare himself in favor of a new and independently negotiated peace with the central powers.

His pledge to bring about peace just as soon as a republican congress can pass a resolution and present it to a republican president for approval seems to admit of no other construction than a total repudiation of the Versailles treaty together with the league of nations proposal.

Senator Harding's declarations, in that regard, promise to simplify the issue on the league of nations and, unless modified or retracted, to dispense with a mass of unnecessary discussion regarding his present attitude.

The nominee is much more specific regarding the league than the party platform and therefore more acceptible to treaty and league opponents and while his declarations may need to be further elucidated to square them with his votes in the Senate favoring the league and the ratification of the treaty with reservations, his announcement has brought enthusiastically to his support, all treaty opponents.

POETRY FOR TODAY

HAPPY IN THE OLD WAY

All along the summer hear the warblers say,
Bet you we are happy in the old time way!
That's the kind of music
That we want to hear
All around the circle
Of the sunbright year!

Happy in the old way, love holds the key;
Happy in the bright world of life's minstrelsy,
Happy as the days go,
Happy as they say
The violets are in April
And the rose in May!

Nothing on the outside like the cheer within
When the daily beauty wakes the old heart's din.
Thousand warblers singing,
And every song so sweet
You feel its swing and tingle
From your head to your feet!

Put me in the sunshine or put me in the shade,
Happy in the old way, and not a bit afraid
Feeling through the warm love
Grace shall come to me
For comfort of the sad heart
That dreams away to glee!

OLD BATTLER WILL BE USED IN UNIQUE TEST

Washington, July 26.—The once famous battleship Iowa, which played no small part in the destruction of Cevera's fleet at Santiago is being prepared at the Philadelphia navy yard for what naval officers say will be one of the most unique target experiments ever attempted.

Proceeding unmanned, under her own steam and controlled by radio, probably from seaplanes, the old sea fighter will be come the objective of the big guns of the Atlantic fleet superdreadnoughts in Chesapeake Bay late this summer. This will be the first time that American warships have used a moving craft for a target except in actual war.

Two of the Iowa's coal burning boilers are being convereted to burn oil so that the ship may continue under way with no one aboard once her fires have been started burning and her engines placed in motion.

It is expected that the unique practice will give the gunpointers of the Atlantic fleet an opportunity to test their ability under conditions as as nearly like those to be expected in battle as can be obtained. Smoke Smone screens will be thrown around the Iowa during the runs and the course will be changed at will through the radio control system, necessitating a change in range on all the firing ships, exactly as would occur in action.

The Iowa has already been stripped of some of its guns and much valuable metel and the practice will be continued until the old vessel, a mass of twisted metal, sinks beneath the waves to join the old Texas, which, as the San Marcos, was used for as a stationary target years ago.

The battleship Ohio has been turned over to the Bureau of Steam Engineering for purpose of experiment in radio control and a staff of expert technical officers has been placed on board to arrange the Iowa practice.

OUIJA BOARDS ARE ENGAGED IN SOLVING MURDER

New Yark, July 26.—Ouija boards by the score have volunteered to solve the mysterious murder of Joseph Bowen Elwell, turfman, card expert and "Don Juan."

Since the body of the gambler was found in his handsome residence here last month, with a bullet through the forehead, alleged clues, motives and revelations of the murderer himself have been gathered from etheral planes by thousands and dumped upon an admittedly bewildered staff of the District Attorney's office.

All of these occult communications are not discarded. While disclaiming any faith in Ouija's ability as a crime investigator, the District Attorney nevertheless admits that he has assigned a man to the special duty of reading occult contributions and submit to him personally any conveying apparently useful information. An anonymous communication purporting to be an occult revelation may contain a valuable clue, Mr. Swann believes, his theory being that the criminal might use this method of informing on a confederate.

Anonymous communicants purport to reveal plot and climax of the crime.

The missing automatic pistol with which Elwell was shot has been located by Ouija boards or other "supernational" means, in every part of the Elwell home, from the sitting room in which the murder was committed down into the basement and up to the roof.

Until the murderer is apprehended both police and district attorney's staff say that they expect no surcease from the persistant profligacy of accult assistance now being forced on them.

Sound and Sensible

In almost thirty years of business, the Columbian Building and Loan Company has never lost a dollar for its depositors.

Operating conservatively, and with business foresight, it has in that time paid the regular interest and dividends, and set aside for surplus in excess of $90,000.

That its officers and directors have been close students of building and loan affairs is shown by the foresight that several years ago adopted its

Flexible Plan of Operation

This plan, which we firmly believe will be generally adopted, consists of a movable rate of interest.

When conditions and the current rate of interest justified, The Columbian Building and Loan Company increased the rate on its mortgage loans, through a special clause carried in its mortgage bonds.

That increase, is given entirely to the depositors in the form of

6 Per Cent Interest on Deposits

The fairness of this proposition, by which depositors get all the increase, is equalled by its sound business sense. Whenever money commands a high rate of interest, it is withdrawn from 5% deposits, and the money that normally is deposited with building and loan companies is diverted into other investments that pay higher interest.

Consequently, the building and loan companies then have no money to advance on building loans, and perforce building is halted. That in turn increases rents, so that all suffer. But when our interest rate is high enough to hold and encourage deposits, we have money for building—as we have now.

Our nearly thirty year's experience has shown that the margin of one per cent is sufficient not only for our expenses, but to add a substantial sum each year to our reserves. In other words, our income is fixed at the same percentage, depending in amount only on the volume of our business, and the 6% rate is increasing that volume, thus insuring the perfect safety of your deposit.

If your business sense approves this plan, and you desire to assist in the solution of the acute housing problem, while securing good interest on absolutely safe deposits, we invite your co-operation.

RANDOM NOTES
SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

A merry maelstrom of happy children circled around Philip Wilkin Monday after noon, upon the occasion of his fifth birthday, and reveled in the exceptionally beautiful party given for him by his mother, Mrs. Harley T. Wilkin. There were two score of youngsters, some of them little more than babies, and they made a charming picture as clad in their prettiest party toge, they trooped across the lawn—little human flowers that bloomed more radiantly than the garden flowers around them.

While everything on the premises was turned over to the young guests, a new garage just completed at the foot of the lawn sloping down in the rear the attractive bungalow, provided an ideal place for play and its novelty especially delighted the tots. The garage, of hollow tile is built with a second story play room, finished with all modern conveni nces for the comfort and pleasure of children, and promises to be the most popular place for play in the neighborhood. The children found it so fascinating that they only left it to romp gleefully on the lawn and back again.

The big garage play room was festooned in gay colors and strung from the ceiling were dozens of toys,prettily wrapped and tied in gay colors, for the little guests. The children's delight knew no bounds as they choose their toy blindfolded and a peanut hunt added greatly to the fun.

In the center of the play room was the table with a beautiful birthday cakes, iceed with pink, and lighted with five candles and a bountiful supply of delicious ice cream, fancy cakes and candies was served. It was such a lovely party that the youngsters didn't want to go home and almost wept when parents called for them.

The small host, a handsome, winning little fellow, did the honors very prettily in his cunning suit of lavender and white and was much pleased with the many birthday gifts showered upon him.

Mrs. Wilkin was assister in caring for the children by Mesdames Ray Maynard, Willard Story, Horace C. Ireland and Pearce Ballard.

ANNUAL HOMECOMING SUGAR CREEK CHURCH

Members of the Sugar Creek Baptist Church held their annual "Homecoming Day" Sunday at the grove adjacent to the church and featured the day's pleasure with a great basket dinner which was spread under the trees.

At the regular sermon hour in the morning service F. L. Fraser, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who has been filling the pulpit, delivered a forceful address and in the afternoon an equally interesting talk was given by Rev. E. T. Waring, of South Charleston.

Members of the congregation and friends of the church mingled together in good fellowship at the noon hour and during the afternoon, and many from a distance had returned especially for the occasion.

The "Homecoming Day" has become an annual affair and it is planned to set a similar day for next year.

How Do You Buy Meat, Mrs. Housewife?

When you step into the meat market to buy a piece of meat for dinner, or when you call the market on the phone to deliver you a boiling piece, a roast or a steak, you are very particular to designate what cut of meat you wish, are you not?

Why be less vigilent regarding your milk for the same meal? Isn't it a fact that you have been believing all along that "milk is milk" and there was not much need of designating the kind?

There's the great difficulty. "Milk IS milk," but still there is a vast difference. "Meat is meat" too, but still you are careful to get what you want—what you think best.

A good practice from now on when buying milk would be to say instead of a pint of milk, say "a pint of PASTEURIZED Milk."

LAD BEING HELD AS A WITNESS GIVEN FREEDOM

Roy Newlan Released And May Later Be Called To Give Testimony.

Roy Newlan, sixteen year old son of Lewis Newlan, who was being held by Sheriff N. B. Hall pending an investigation of the death of Clemerson Leach, sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Leach of the Circleville pike, was turned loose by the authorities Monday evening.

A hearing had been set for nine o'clock Tuesday morning by Prosecuting Attorney Harry M. Rankin, at which the witnesses of the accident were to testify, but this was cancelled.

It is understood that in all probabity the youth will not be given hearing. It was with the Newlan lad that Leach had been scuffling when he fell over a bar and struck his head on the wall of the Sunnyside school building Sunday afternoon, causing instant death.

Drs. D. H. Rowe and L. L. Brock hold to the conclusion reached in the post mortem performed Sunday evening that the Leach youth died a natural death due to a defective heart and a hardened liver. They declare that the shock of a fall would cause immediate death with the lad in such physical condition.

It was only a few years ago that Roy's younger brother, then hardly volver while his mother was out of the house and was playing with it on the floor. When the mother returned he playfully pulled the trigger. The child's mother fell dead when the bullet struck a vital spot.

During the time that Roy Newlan was in the custody of the authorities he was not locked up, but stayed at Sheriff Hall's home at night and at the office during the day. He was detained as an important witness in the case.

PATCHING STREETS DURING SHUTDOWN

Keeping up their agreement for the five year guarantee on the asphalt streets of this city the Andrews Asphalt Paving Company is repairing all worn places on paving laid under former contracts.

Monday and Tuesday the work was on East street where any places in the street which had shown the least deterioration was patched. The old material is melted by means of a powerful torch and is then scraped off. A new top coat is then spread.

Service Director Tracey announced Tuesday that all places on any of the streets paved with asphalt, which in the judgment of the officials need repair, will be patched and put in good condition.

The work is being done by the Andrews Company in spare moments and two full days were put in on Monday and Tuesday due to a shutdown at the mixing plant where a new drum engine was being installed.

TONIGHT

At the Palace Theater,' Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights the Climax Compression Inner Tube film taken last week, showing a number of local citizens driving nails into a Climax Tube without loss of air from the tube, will be shown. You will recognize dozens of local faces. advt.

NATION-WIDE PROHIBITION IS THE CAUSE

One day last week Mayor Dahl announced that during the past six mnths and in fact not since early last winter, had there been an arrest in this city on a charge of intoxication.

Naturally we complimented ourselves on those facts and gave credit for conditions which warranted so splendid a report to the coming of prohibition.

The Circleville (Darst) Herald rather questions the correctness of our giving credit to the coming of prohibition in the following paragraph.

"Private stocks in our neighboring town must be about depleted. It isn't any wonder that intoxication is getting to be a thing of the past as Washington has been presumably "dry" for some years although befor national prohibition went into effect, there was more "booze" shipped to that point than the 13 saloons sold in this county."

The fact about it is that the good effect of local prohibition, or "local option," as we called it, in effect in Washington for years prior to the coming of nation-wide prohibition, was neutralized by nearby wet spots like Circleville."

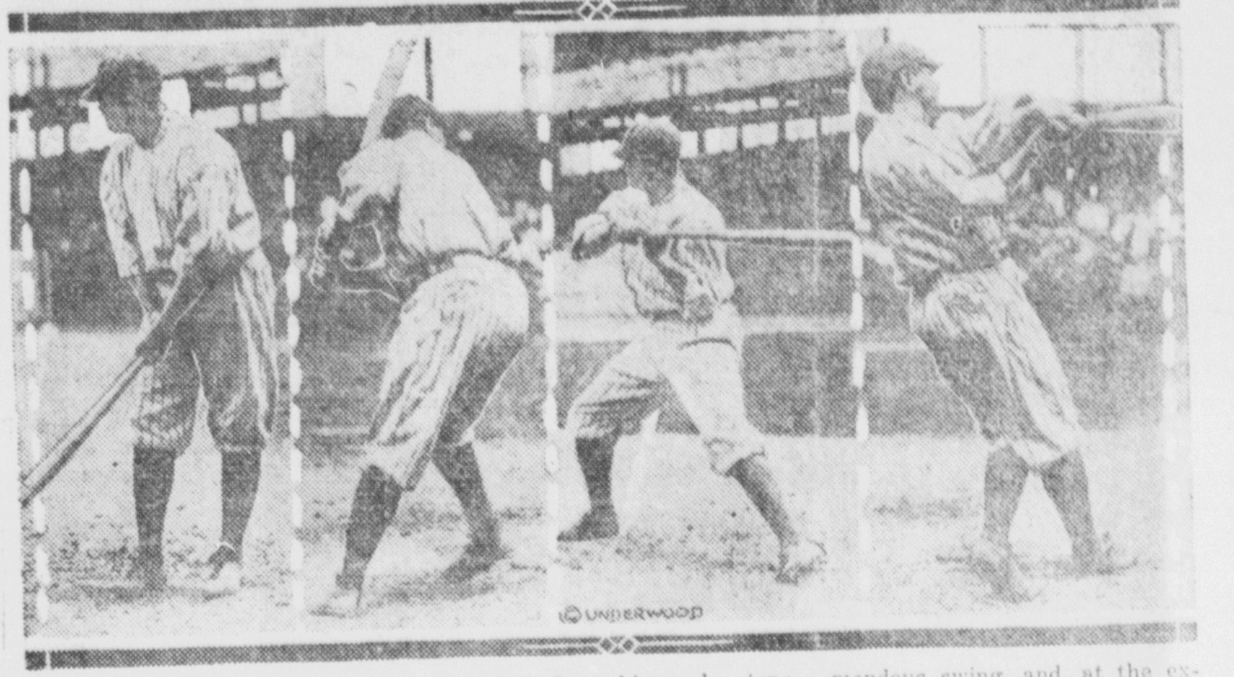
Unfortunate addicts here journeyed to Circleville and loaded up with all they could carry inside them and all they could tote in suit cases and boxes and then came back here to in crease the number of arrests for drunks.

Washington did have booze out long before nation-wide prohibition came and the list of arrests for intoxication would have shriveled up just as it has done since the nation has adopted the eighteenth amendment but for Circleville and other wet towns that remained wet until the last horn was blown. Because of Circleville, and other towns like it, that refused to refor, voluntarily, that last horn was blown by an indignant people and the bad spots cured.

Now the good effect of Washington's local option laws is un affected by the bad influences of the open grog shop in Circleville.

We reassert that nation wide prohibition should be given credit for improved conditions. But for it Circleville would still be wet.

MOVIE OF BABE RUTH ABOUT TO MAKE ANOTHER HOME RUN



This interesting series of photographs shows Babe Ruth, the "home run king," in the act of knocking out one of his base-circling clouts. The photograph at the left shows him as he steps to the plate and eyes the pitcher; then in successive stages he is shown with the bat at his shoulder, the beginning of his tremendous swing, and, at the extreme right, the end of his swing after he has connected with the ball and just before he starts for first base.

OPEN AIR SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED

Open air religious services on the Court House lawn Sunday evening at seven-thirty o'clock were largely attended by large numbers from all the congregations of the city and from practically every denomination.

Whelpley's Band furnished music for the occasion with a short concert preceeding the service and then accompanied the singing which was led by F. L. Fraser, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. William Boynton Gage offered prayer and the sermon was delivered by Rev. G. E. Groves of the Christian Church.

WORRELL IS TIMER AT GRAND CIRCUIT

Grand Circuit racing which started in Columbus Monday afternoon at the Columbus Driving Park is again being timed by J. A. Worrel Sr., of this city, who for many years has held this position.

Mr. Worrell has been connected with the Grand Circuit Races since 1891, the second year after their beginning and since 1898 has held the watch on the horses. He is assisted by two other men.

It was Timer Worrell's pleasure Monday afternoon to hold the time piece on the fastest mile paced in the country this year when Single G stepped the first heat of the free-for-all pace in 2:01.

It is stated by Mr. Worrel that Single G is one of the most remarkable horses that he has ever seen. The pacer has been worked on the tracks all over the country for the past decade and is still one of the best.

INSTALL MACHINERY AND PLANT IS IDLE

Asphalt rolling on the city streets was stopped all day Monday when not a wheel turned at the mixing plant on South North street. The cause for the shut-down was the installation of a new drum engine on the plant.

Workmen spent Sunday on the job but were not able to install the new piece of machinery in the one day's time. Things were shaped ready to beging sometime Tuesday.

FUNERAL SERVICES MR. GEORGE SHERIDAN

The funeral services of Mr. George Sheridan were very largely attended at St. Colman's church Monday morning, many accompanying the funeral car from Mr. Sheridan's late home near Bowersville.

The large family connection in this county was also fully represented, as well as a large circle of friends.

Rev. Fr. Fogarty conducted the impressive requiem mass, the music of which was beautifully sung by the church choir, Miss Olive Hillary taking the solo, "Jesus Sweet Jesus"—Miss Margaret Clark was at the organ.

There was a profusion of lovely flowers.

The burial was made in St. Colman's cemetery, the pall-bearers were the two brothers, Messrs. Joe and Charles Sheridan, sons-in-law Frank Dwyer and Jhon Gallagher, and brothers-in-law William and Thomas Frayne.

ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Of Interest to Expectant Mothers

Goshen, Ind.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results after I had suffered for some time with female trouble. Some years ago I had twin boys and took your Vegetable Compound before they came; also before my four year old boy was born, and afterwards, and think it fine for such cases. I tell others what it did for me and you may publish my testimonial." —Mrs. Geo. A. Foos, 711 S. 9th St., Goshen, Ind.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong and this good old-fashioned root and herb remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

YEARS OF TORTURE BY ECZEMA ENDED

Findlay contractor had sores all over his body from scratching hand so sore unable to work all winter.

Declares two bottles of Dreco have healed every sore and stopped the burning and itching.

"If any person who reads this knows what it is to be tormented by that terrifying disease Eczema, they will easily understand why I am willing to publish my experience for the benefit of other sufferers," are the words of that well known contractor Mr. Steve Martin, 51 years old and residing on North Main St., Findlay, O.

For twelve year I've suffered from eczema. Many a night I've rolled and tossed unable to sleep because of this itching, burning disease. I had sores all over my body from scratching. My hands were covered with it and so sore I haven't done any work all Winter. I often had dizzy spells and kept a vile taste in my mouth all the time, which convinced me that my liver was sluggish.

"I have have taken two bottles of Dreco, and there isn't a sore on my body and my hands have healed perfectly. My liver has been cleaned off so that no dizzy spells attack me. Dreco has done for me in a few weeks what I have sought for years."

Dreco is known as a powerful blood purifier and system cleanser. It's certain action comes through aiding the vital organs to throw off poisons in the body. Dreco strengthens weak kidneys, rouses a lazy liver; over comes constipation; aids the stomach in digestion and clears the poisons from the blood.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Washington by Frank Christopher.—Advt.

JILTED CAPTAIN GETS PROPOSALS

Sydney, N. D. (By Mail)—Residents of this city are beginning to wonder whether it is still in order to pity Captain Thomas Kitchen, the Canadian Field Artillery officer whose fiancee, Miss A. Butler, of Manchester, Eng., transferred her affections to Lieutenant T. Miller while enroute to Halifax to marry the captain.

Following the publicity which has been given the broken engagement, Captain Kitchen has received many letters, mostly from English women, in which the writer offers her own hand to the captain by way of consolation for the loss of Miss Butler.

Among those who offer to come to Sidney and become Mrs. Captain Kitchen is a young duchess, Captain Kitchen says. She has written expressing her sympathy and volunteered to come at once, if the gallant Canadian will have her.

Captain Kitchen would not tell the name of the duchess or say whether she was a noblewoman in her own right or the divorced or widowed wife of some high ranking peer.

Merchant Financial Wreck

"I am a financial wreck because of the expense of doctors and medicine for my wife. She has been a chronic sufferer for 10 years. Some pronounced it gall stones, some gastritis and some intestinal inflammation. I happened to read an ad of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and from the first dose my wife has steadily improved." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Blackmer & Tanquary.—Advt.

FOURTEENTH FRAME BRINGS A PROTEST

When the two teams disagreed at the end of the fourteenth inning with the score standing 15 to 13 in favor of New Holland the baseball game Sunday afternoon between the New Holland Giants and Mt. Sterling at Mt. Sterling was called a draw.

The disagreement resulted over the legality of a home run. Until that time the teams had battled evenly and a pretty slugging game was in progress.

Wood, Wilson, and Arehood, were battery men for New Holland.
